

SAVV COVID REPORT

Solano Advocates for Victims of Violence (SAVV) has been working tirelessly during COVID to support the needs of the community especially for victims of violence and their families. Helping them with shelter, food, and financial assistance is a supportive step towards their transformation into a survivor. Donations are needed to continue our mission to inspire hope, growth, and resiliency. Please visit our website (<https://www.savvcenter.org>) to find out how to donate.
